RE: Autentixx LLC v. Santander Bank, N.A.
Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-03642-JHR (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Rearden:

I represent Defendant Santander Bank, N.A. (“Defendant”) in the above-captioned matter with my co-counsel Mr. Brian Landry and Ms. Veronica McCarty. My appearance was entered on June 3, 2024. (Dkt. 15.) On May 31, 2024, this Court issued a Memo Endorsement (Dkt. 12) ordering “any attorneys who have not filed a notice of appearance or applied for pro hac vice admission [to] do so forthwith, and in no event later than June 5, 2024.” (“Order”).

Mr. Landry (who is barred in Massachusetts) and Ms. McCarty (who is barred in Pennsylvania and Delaware) both need to obtain Certificates of Good Standing (“Certificates”) in their respective states, and have submitted the proper requests as of the date of this filing. However, I understand that it can take up to two weeks to procure the required Certificates for Mr. Landry and Ms. McCarty’s pro hac vice applications.

Defendant accordingly requests a two-week extension, to June 19, 2024, to file the pro hac vice applications as ordered. (1) The original date for filing is June 5, 2024, as indicated in this Court’s May 31, 2024 Order; (2) This is Defendant’s first request for an extension of time for the pro hac vice applications; (3) no such extension has been denied or granted; (4) This request is submitted to permit counsel to obtain Certificates and not for the purpose of delay; (5) Plaintiff Authentixx LLC (“Plaintiff”) confirmed on June 3, 2024 that Plaintiff does not object to this extension; (6) No appearance is yet scheduled in this matter, and the next deadline is Defendant's deadline to answer or move in response to the Complaint by July 22, 2024. No deadlines will be affected by this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ John A. Basinger
